RETURNS TO MARYE FAMILY.

Historic Home at Fredericksburg Purchased by George T. Marye.

"Brompton," the old home of the Marye family, and since the war known as Marye Heights, at Fredericksburg, which has had several owners since the closing of the war, has recently returned to the Marye family, having been purchased by George Thompson Marye, of San Francisco, now residing in Washington. Mr. Marye is a multi-millionaire, and belongs to a collateral branch of the Marye family which removed to California many years ago.

"Brompton" was built by the late John L. Marye early in the last century. He was an eminent lawyer in his day and accumulated a large fortune. He was the father of the late Lieut. Governor John L. Marye, and of Col. Morton Marye, recent state auditor of Virginia.

Capt. M. B. Rowe, present mayor of Fredericksburg, has owned the property for a number of years and having ample means, has kept it in excellent condition. Mr. Marye will use the residence as his home part of the year.

The mansion is beautifully situated, commanding a view of the city of Fredericksburg on one hand and the valley of the Rappahannock and the winding river by that name, on the other side. It is visited yearly by thousands of tourists on account of its association with some of the bloodiest battles the world has ever seen.

Eighty-nine were killed and many wounded in a desperate 16-hour battle Friday and Saturday at Lampazos, 19 miles south of Laredo Texas, between a handful of federalists and 800 followers of Venustiano Carranza, rebel governor of Coahuila. The attacking forces are reported to have wrought destruction by the use of dynamite. Col. Pascual Grosse, Sr., father of the former northern revolutionary, has been arrested by order of Emilio Zapata, rebel leader of Southern Mexico.

The Ohio river became stationary at Huntington, W. Va., Monday night and at noon yesterday was falling slowly. Relief committees took up the work of feeding and caring for the 4,500 homeless. About 100 houses between Huntington and Kenova, W. Va., it is reported, have been carried down the river by the flood.

Deprived of her Treasures.

Phillipsburg, N. J., April 1.—Attacked on her way home Sunday night, Mary Loux, aged 17, of North Main street was robbed of her hair by an unidentified man.

The man sprang at her from the darkness of a porch, seized her about the arms, and, after a struggle, snatched off her hair close to the scalp. It is believed that he used a razor. Miss Loux reached her home, then swooned, and suffered such a nervous shock that physicians are in attendance.

The young woman had a remarkably heavy mass of dark hair. She wore it loose down her back, extending below her waist, and it was greatly admired.

Man Beaten Man May Die.

Milville, N. J., April 1.—Beaten into insensibility and left for dead, Benjamin Kindley was found lying in a pool of blood in West Milville late Sunday night. Kindley charges Wilbert Clevenger with being his assailant, and the police are now looking for the man.

Kindley's head was beaten almost to a pulp, and a doctor found it necessary to take 28 stitches to close the wounds. The man may die.

The police state that there is a woman in the case.

Wind Cuts Swath.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 1.—A terrific 20-minute wind, rain and hail storm yesterday afternoon cut a swath of a mile swath through the estates of Thomas Newbold, Mrs. James Roosevelt, mother of Assistant Secretary of Navy F. D. Roosevelt, and J. Roosevelt. Immense trees were leveled, but no one was injured.

Fatal Accident to Farmer.

Cape Charles, Va., April 1.—Alexander C. Carpenter, a farmer forty years old, fell from a wagon at Cheriton yesterday afternoon, breaking his neck. He was engaged in hauling crates from the railroad station, when one of them fell from a heavily loaded wagon and landed upon the back of a mule which he was driving, causing the animal to run away. In his efforts to check the animal he was thrown from the vehicle beneath the wagon which passed over his head and neck. He leaves a wife and one child.

Grants Writ.

Hoboken, N. J., April 1.—Judge Minturn granted a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of Haywood this morning at 9:30. The writ is returnable at Paterson on Saturday morning.

WILL NOT KISS BIBLE.

Declines to Place His Lips to Outside of Good Book.

Richmond, April 1.—Adolph Volkman, 204 West Marshall street, shattered precedent yesterday in Justice Crutchfield's court by refusing to kiss the Bible while taking an oath because, he said, the covers of the book were germ-laden.

He would not recede from his position, insisting in the face of the judge's peremptory command to place his lips to the outside covering of the Bible that he was courting death to do so. Smallpox germs were mentioned as one variety that might be lurking in the covers.

"That book is all right; kiss it," said Justice Crutchfield, sternly.

"It's dangerous; I'll not," replied Volkman.

Before the judge recovered from the shock of this fast refusal, Volkman compromised by opening the Bible and lightly touching his lips to a printed page. It was something unheard of in the long history of the court.

Volkman was present to give $500 bond for the temporary release of his son, F. C. Volkman, 26 years old, who was arrested on complaint of the Washington police. It was necessary for the father to take oath as to what he was worth before he could be accepted as a bondsman. The formality required the use of the Bible.

The younger Volkman was arrested Sunday and liberated on bail until his appearance yesterday morning. The bond was renewed with the understanding that Attorney H. M. Smith, Jr., would deliver Volkman into the custody of Detective Sergeant Muller, of Washington, in time to be taken to the national capital at noon today. This he did.

Volkman is charged with grand larceny. According to Detective Sergeant Muller he obtained a $150 diamond ring from Miss Frances L. Beck, of Washington, with whom he was on friendly terms and pawned it for $12. This was done with the girl's consent. He gave her the pawn tickets and later restored the ring to her, Muller said.

It developed afterwards, it is charged, that a worthless imitation diamond had been substituted for the genuine stone before the ring was returned to Miss Beck. She complained to the police that she had been swindled.

Recovered From Severe Lung Trouble

While we all know that plenty of fresh air and good food are necessary to persons suffering from lung trouble, something more is needed to bring about full health. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine for throat and lung troubles, and so many reports have been received showing that it brings about good results in a number of cases which were declared hopeless, that all sufferers who are not benefiting themselves should, at least, investigate what it has done for others. It may be the means of restoring you to health. Investigate this case.

"Gentlemen: In December, 1908, and March, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs, which confined me several weeks each time to my bed. These left me very weak and I coughed at nights and could not sleep. My appetite also failed me. My doctor advised me to go West. So, in September, 1909, I planned to go, but I had four more hemorrhages, which put me in bed three more weeks.

"In November I started for Denver, Col. After my arrival I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alternative. I bought a bottle. I began to feel better. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I think I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 120 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alternative for my health. If I can help any other person suffering from Tuberculosis, I will gladly do so."

(SIGNED) PAUL L. FASACIT. Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more information. For sale by all leading druggists.
